PORTO RICAN REVENUES

An Official Statement of Six Months' Receipts From the Island.

Less Than a Million Dollars the Total of Internal Taxes and Customs Duties—A Deficit Indicated in Comparison With the Expenditures Provided for by the New Law.

An important statement showing the total receipts of the Porto Rican Treasury for the first half of the fiscal year 1899 ending January 1, 1900, was made public today by the Division of Customs and Insular Affairs of the War Department. The total amount of money collected from all sources during the six months named, was $851,464.54. This sum represents the income from the modified Spanish system of internal revenue taxation changed in several particulars by the Military Governor of the island and from the customs tariff law in force under Spanish rule which has also been modified by Governor Davis.

According to the estimates made by the Congressional committees having in charge the framing of the act recently passed providing a temporary system of taxation and a civil government for Porto Rico, something like $5,000,000 will be required during the coming year to maintain the new American government. From the figures of the statement the annual deficit under the old system would amount to $1,366,000. The Administration officers assert the belief that the 15 per cent tariff clause in the new act will bring the total revenue receipts up to more than $2,000,000.

The report gives the receipts and their division as follows: Customs revenues deposited by collectors, $667,948.86; deposits of funds in trust for contractors, $250,000; postal revenues deposited by acting postmasters, $28,827.27; money order fees for quarter ended September 30, 1899, $1,417.50; director general's office, $1,417.50; director general's deposit of general balance from central treasury to the credit of internal revenue receipts, $23,764.39; deposit of trust funds, $1,070.00; internal revenue receipts, $80,512.23; deposit of matriculation fee by teachers, $12; deposit of funds in trust, $519.71; deposits by collectors of internal revenue, $1,856.08; fees and fines deposited by the Clerk of the United States Provisional Court, $2,557.06; deposits of fees for trade-marks, $1,540; deposits of funds from private sources, $8,837.51; funds in trust, guaranty for contracts, $1,901; funds in trust, bond of register deeds, $30.24; funds in trust, guaranty expenses for title and part of money bond, $459; and the deposit by the city of Fajardo for the industrial and normal school, $20,000.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

Senator and Mrs. Elkins entertained at dinner last night. Among their guests were the Postmaster General and Mrs. Smith, the Secretary of Agriculture and Miss Wilson, Senator and Mrs. Carter, Senator and Mrs. Addison Foster, Senator and Mrs. Mansbrough, Senator and Mrs. Clark of Wyoming, Senator and Mrs. Quarles, Representative and Mrs. Dalzell, and Colonel and Mrs. Bingham.

Mr. J. S. Davidson called for Antwerp yesterday on the Kensington.

Mr. Henry Adams, Mr. W. M. Butt, Mrs. Butt, and Mrs. P. R. Butt were among the Washington passengers who sailed for Europe yesterday on the St. Paul.

The dinner guests entertained by Dr. von Bismarck at the Germania Embassy last night were Secretary of the Treasury and Mrs. Gage. To meet them were Mr. Kasson, former Senator and Mrs. Henderson, General Corbin, Mr. Forsyth, Mrs. W. A. Maury, Mrs. Cropper, Mrs. Thomas Turner, Mrs. J. Nicholas Norton, Mrs. Arthur Peckham, Mrs. O. H. Richey, Mrs. Bate, Mrs. E. R. Fowler, Mrs. M. B. Johnson, Mrs. J. L. M. Curry, Mrs. C. Carlisle, and Mrs. George M. Beale.

A wedding of interest to many Washington friends occurred Wednesday evening at Onancock, Va. The bride was Miss Eleanor Richardson Powell, of that place, and the groom, Mr. Joseph Laws Cahall, of Delaware. The ceremony took place in the Noami Makemie Presbyterian Church, named after the wife of Francis Makemie, the founder of the Presbyterian Church in America, in which good work he was assisted by Walter Ker, the ancestor of the bride of today. Walter Ker was one of the founders of Log Cabin, from which grew Princeton.

Rev. J. H. Henderson, pastor of the church, officiated. Miss Elsie Powell was maid of honor. The bridesmaids were Miss Priscilla Upham, daughter of Hon. George M. Ballentine, of Baltimore; Miss Mary C. Kimball, of Washington, and Miss Helen Gordon Moore, daughter of Hon. John P. Moore, of Snow Hill, Md. The groom had for best man Mr. Robert Richards, of Georgetown, Del., and the ushers were Messrs. J. H. Penuel, S. Kerlemons, of Delaware, and Messrs. George H. Powell, and Douglas Wilkins, of Onancock.

The bride was gowned in white crepe de chine, the costume elaborately trimmed with chiffon and rare old lace, and wore a rich lace veil caught up with orange blossoms.

Miss Lillian Harlow and Mr. Martin P. Greene, of Alexandria, were married last night in St. Mary's Catholic Church of that city. The pastor, Rev. Henry J. Cutler, officiated at the marriage, assisted by Rev. Father Coleman, of Frederickburg, and Rev. Father Cahill, of Ireland. The bride was attired in white satin and mouseline de soie, with pearl trimmings, and carried Bride roses. Miss Mary V. Harlow, her sister, as maid of honor, wore white organdie, with acornion-plaited

Hood's Sarsaparilla

Is so well known as the best Spring Medicine, that upon this simple reminder thousands of people will at once begin to take it. Will you be of the number? Hood's Sarsaparilla has proved by its thousands of great cures that it has no equal for the blood, stomach and nerves. It cures scrofula, salt rheum, boils, pimples, humors, dyspepsia, sharpens the appetite, drives away that tired feeling. It has well won its title, America's Greatest Spring and Blood Medicine. skirt, lace, and white satin ribbon. She carried Easter lilies. The maid's honor were Miss Marie Isabel MacCue, of Philadelphia; Miss M. Clare Kane and Miss Catherine Meyer, of Washington; Miss Dorothy Lannon and Misses Gertrude and Josephine Harlow, of Alexandria, and they were gowns of white organdie and carried bunches of red carnations tied with green satin ribbon. Mr. George R. Brown was best man, and Messrs. James Trimble, of Washington, and Ed Mills, Leo Harlow, Richard Harlow, Dennis Normandy, and George R. Harlow, of Alexandria, were the officiating. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Richard Trimble, Mr. R. Porter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Harrington, and others, of Washington.

Miss Paulding will give a dance this evening, an eagerly anticipated feature of which will be a cake walk by prominent beaux and belles.

The Belgian Minister and Countess de Lichtervelde will entertain at dinner tonight.

Yesterday afternoon Mr. and Mrs. John W. Thompson, of Alexandria, placed their drawing room at the disposal of the Washington Auxiliary of the Woman's Indian Association, who held their final meeting of the season from 2 to 5 o'clock. The auxiliary was organized about fifteen years ago by Mrs. Hawley, the first wife of Senator Hawley, and since that time has been productive of ever increasing success. Mrs. Wilber, the President of the auxiliary, presided, and a specially interesting feature of the afternoon were two short addresses, one by Governor Brady of Alaska, who gave a graphic account of Alaska, Indian life, and one by Mrs. Robinson, who told of her experiences with the tribes of the Indian Territory, in which field she has labored for years. The gracious young hostess received the hundreds and hundreds of members and their friends who were present, and at the close of the addresses and other light refreshments were served. A few among the members present were Mrs. Bidwell, Mrs. Rosa Wright Smith, Mrs. Cummings, Mrs. Whittlesey, Mrs. Parker, Mrs. Brown, Mrs. Seaman, and Mrs. Wilkinson.

The New Grand—Polite Vaudeville.

At the New Grand, next week, the programme offered is of exceptional quality. "Bob" Hilliard, with his own company will appear in the one-act play, "The Littlest Girl." This is dramatized by Mr. Hilliard from the novel, "Her First Appearance," by Richard Harding Davis. The Spiral Ascension is a daring novel introduced by Leo Dervalio, a European vaudeville attraction. "The Commander-in-Chief of the army of fun," Pressed Shirts will present a new assortment of anecdotes and jokes. "Two Girls and One Man" will be rendered by Lizzie Evans and Harry Mills. Viola Dale in songs and dancing will prove an attractive feature. The Raymond trio will provide a musical number. Monologues and minuet will be offered by Ray L. Joyce. The closing number will be Thompson's dog, "Yankee."

A Concert at the Columbia

A unique entertainment, which is announced as an Aeolian and Pianola Concert, will be given at the Columbia Theatre Friday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock under the auspices of William Knabe & Co.

The concert is intended to publicly demonstrate the art character and serious musical importance of the Aeolian and Pianola, mechanical devices for playing the organ and piano.

Miss George C. Kasson, a graduate of the New York Conservatory of Music, will render a soprano solo, aria from the "Magic Flute," Mozart, to the accompaniment of the Pianola. Mendelssohn's Allegro from Op. 49, for trio, Op. 49, for piano, violin, and cello will be performed on the Pianola, assisted by Julius Zech, of the Peabody Orchestra, of Baltimore, on the violin, and Ernst Oehlberg, formerly of Thomas' Orchestra, on the cello.

Other numbers of the programme will be: Overture, "L'italiana in Algeria," Rossini, and "Serenade," Tittl, rendered by the Aeolian Orchestra; "Rigoletto," Verdi, Liszt, and "Nocturne," Op. 9, No. 2, Chopin, by the Pianola; "Alkumbblatt," Op. 4, Henrichs, cello, with Aeolian; "Polka de Concert," Bartol, by the Pianola; "Cavatina," Raff, with Pianola accompaniment, and "The Man Behind the Gun," march, Sousa, by the Aeolian.

Much interest has been manifested in the entertainments arranged for the most select people of the city has already exhausted the boxes and the limited number of reserved seats. The concert is complimentary.

Kernan's Lyceum Theatre

GEORGE HAYFORD ARRESTED.

Wanted Here on Charges of Dealing With Worthless Drafts.

A dispatch received last night at Police Headquarters announced the arrest yesterday in New York City of George Hayford, forty-five years of age, who is wanted here on charges of false pretences. Detective Weedon, accompanied by Edward W. Spaulding, an alleged victim of Hayford, left the city at a late hour for the metropolis to identify the prisoner.

It is likely Hayford will be brought here this week for trial. He is said to have operated here in two instances, each time securing small sums by means of worthless drafts. The first report of his transactions was made by Mr. Spaulding, who told the police that Hayford, on March 26 last, passed on him a draft for $20, drawn on the Douglas County Bank of Waterbury, Vt., and that the same was returned by the bank unpaid. Later it was reported from the Columbia Phonograph Company that Hayford had passed a draft for a similar sum in payment for a toy phonograph valued at $150. This draft, it is stated, was also returned unpaid by the Douglas County Bank.

Some time ago a description of Hayford was secured by the local authorities and sent to various cities. A despatch to the Douglas County Bank elicited a reply to the effect that Hayford had passed drafts aggregating about $500 within two months, although he is unknown at the institution and has no funds there.

Muscular Rheumatism Cured.

For the relief and cure of muscular rheumatism Chamberlain's Pain Balm has become famous. One application relieves the pain. Mr. R. Wheeler, of Northwood, N. Y., in speaking of this, says: "During the winter of 1898 I was so lame in my joints, in fact all over my body, that I could hardly hobble around, when I bought a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. From the first application I began to get well, and was cured and have worked steadily all the year." Pain Balm is for sale by Henry Evans, wholesale and retail, and all druggists.
